In the Matter of:

Steven James Anderson
Petitioner

Order Granting Harassment Restraining Order After Hearing
(Minn. Stat. § 609.748)

vs.

Timothy Allyn Hutchinson

This matter was heard by Elizabeth Clysdale, Judge/Referee of District Court on July 10, 2023.

Appearances were made by:

- Petitioner Petitioner's Attorney: Daniel Van Loh, Esq.
- Respondent Respondent's Attorney:
- Other: Witnesses for Respondent

Based upon the evidence and all the files, records and proceedings in this matter, the court finds:

1. The Respondent denies the allegations of the Petition but has no objection to the issuance of a Restraining Order. The court makes no findings of harassment.
2. There are reasonable grounds to believe that Respondent has engaged in harassment which has or is intended to have a substantial adverse effect on safety, security, or privacy of Petitioner or the minor children or ward(s) of Petitioner by committing the following acts:
 - Physically or sexually assaulted the Petitioner as follows:
 - Followed, monitored, or pursued the Petitioner as follows:
 - Made uninvited visits to the Petitioner as follows:
 - Made harassing phone calls or sent harassing text messages to the Petitioner as follows:
 - Made threats to the Petitioner as follows:
 - Frightened Petitioner with threatening behavior as follows:
 - Called the Petitioner abusive names as follows:
 - Damaged Petitioner's property as follows:
 - Broke into and entered Petitioner's residence as follows:

- Stole property from Petitioner as follows:
- Took pictures of the Petitioner without permission of the Petitioner as follows:
- Disseminated private sexual images of the Petitioner without permission of the Petitioner as follows:
- Used personal information, without consent, to invite, encourage, or solicit a third party to engage in a sexual act with the Petitioner as followings:
- Did acts repeatedly that meet the legal definition of "targeted residential picketing" as follows:
- Attended public events after being notified that Respondent's presence at the events is harassing to Petitioner as follows:
- Used social media to harass Petitioner as following:
- Other: The court finds the following:

1. Respondent is Petitioner's father-in-law. On May 27, 2021, Respondent agreed to a two-year Harassment Restraining Order (HRO) without findings. Petitioner's wife also has a HRO against Respondent.

2. In June 2021, Respondent created a website and a ninety-minute video, which was his response to all of the allegations raised in Petitioner's initial Petition for a HRO and disparaged Petitioner. (Ex. 6). Respondent invited family, including Petitioner's wife, to view the website. In June 2022, Respondent wrote a letter to his family and friends, which was uploaded to the website. (Ex. 5). In this letter, Respondent provided updates and again responds to the allegations raised in Petitioner's initial Petition for a HRO and disparaged Petitioner.

3. On June 4, 2021, Respondent sent a letter to Petitioner's wife, which accused Petitioner of lying and blamed him for Respondent and his daughter's broken relationship. (Ex. 4). On December 7, 2021, Respondent sent another letter to Petitioner's wife, where he blames Petitioner for his health issues, lack of sleep, and his heart condition. (Ex. 10).

4. On May 4, 2023, Respondent sent a message addressed to Petitioner through Petitioner's attorney. In this letter, Respondent mentions that the HRO expires on May 23, 2023, and goes on to say that Petitioner's lies will be exposed and he plans to protest at the church every week at both locations. (Ex. 3).

5. On May 5, 2023, Respondent contacted Petitioner's employer, Calvary Church, and demanded that the church investigate Petitioner's conduct as it relates to the problems between Respondent and his daughter, who is Petitioner's wife. In this letter, Respondent threatened to take action if an investigation was not conducted. When Calvary Church declined to investigate, Respondent replied: "The banners have been ordered. My family and friends are ready. The protest will happen. There is only one way to stop this, and that is for [Calvary Church] to do the proper investigation.” (Ex. 2). Respondent was referring that there would be protests on church property directed at Petitioner, which Petitioner and his employer took seriously.

6. Respondent does not dispute that he created a website and a video, sent letters to Calvary Church, and letters to Petitioner and his wife through their attorney. Respondent offered explanations and excuses for his conduct, which were not credible. Respondent’s sister’s testimony that she was organizing the protest and Respondent was not going to be present was not credible. Respondent’s website, video, letters to Calvary Church, and letters to Petitioner and his wife through their attorney violated the existing HRO and were intended to and have negatively impacted Petitioner’s safety, security and privacy. Respondent lacks insight into how his conduct has affected Petitioner and his wife and it is likely the harassment will continue without a HRO in place.

7. Petitioner is requesting a ten-year HRO. A HRO may be issued for a period of more than two years when there have been two or more violations of a HRO. Given the nature of the violations and Respondent’s continued attacks on Petitioner’s reputation and his employment, the HRO will be issued for ten years.

3. The harassment has or is intended to have a substantial adverse effect on the Petitioner’s safety, security, or privacy.
4. The relief granted by this order may be for a period of up to 50 years based on the finding that:
- The petitioner has had two or more previous restraining order in effect against the same respondent; or
- The respondent has violated a prior or existing restraining order on two or more occasions.

IT IS ORDERED:
